

UEG MEDIA DECLARATION

TO ALL ACCREDITED MEDIA AT THE EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIPS AND UEG EVENTS

By requesting accreditation, applicants accept the terms and conditions as stated below. Applicants will sign the declaration upon receiving the accreditation onsite.

The conditions below correspond to recommendations given by the International Sport Press Association (AIPS).

A. General Rules

1. Accreditation is granted for editorial purposes only.
2. Applicants must provide proof bona fide of the media they represent.
3. Freelancers or self-employed journalists without professional press card are required to provide proof of an explicit editorial assignment for an identified media.
4. Official accreditation is personal and non-transferable. Priority will always be given to international news agencies, international, national and local publications as well as FIG-recognised specialised media.
5. The use of cell phones is prohibited on the field of play.
6. Interviews inside the field of play during a competition are strictly prohibited. Interviews inside the Field of Play after the competition can be requested to the UEG.
7. Ostentatious or demonstrative behaviour or the bearing of flags or banners of any kind are prohibited in the Media Zones.

B. EP – EEP – EFP Category Photographers

1. Photographers do everything in their power to protect the copyright of their images and inform all their clients of the limits of usage in the terms and conditions they supply. Abusive reproduction will be sanctioned.
2. All personal / commercial use other than editorial is prohibited.
3. It is understood by all photographers and their clients that without prior consent by a gymnast or his (her) representative, commercial use of photographs depicting said gymnast is prohibited.
4. Publication of sequences in excess of 5 images/second is prohibited, all platforms included. No moving pictures may be published on the Internet.
5. Photographers representing UEG affiliated federations (EFP) are on exclusive assignment and may not hold any other mandate or engage in commercial activity.
6. Representatives of internet websites and similar platforms will note that the accumulation of EE and EEP accreditation is prohibited. EE accreditation holders will not have clearance for photo positions.

C. Television

Televisions who do not possess a written TV-Rights Agreement with UEG and its TV partner EBU will only be accredited as a Non-right holder (ENR).

Camera access to the venue, including the mixed zone, is only allowed to Right Holders.

Non-right holders (ENR) can have access to the venue with no cameras and with a press accreditation. If they need to get news access or any other rights to broadcast, they should get rights/sublicense from the right holder in the respective territory.

All accredited Televisions agree and confirm not to sell or forward any of their pictures to a third party (other broadcaster, agency, etc.).

D. Final Remarks

1. The UEG reserves the right to levy sanctions in cases of non-compliance with the aforesaid rules.
2. Non-compliance with one or more of the rules may result in the immediate withdrawal of accreditation.
3. An appeal can be made against a sanction taken by the UEG Head of Media. This must be in writing to the UEG Director within 24 hours of the sanction. The decision of the UEG Director is final.

The undersigned confirms that I have read and accept the above conditions.
